Mrs. F. S. New was accidentally burned to death last Monday. She has been subject to epileptic fits for some years, and it is supposed she was taken with one of these fits, and as she was sitting near the fire, her clothes caught in some way, and before any one was aware the deadly flames were raging. Her clothes were burned from her body. She lingered from about 7 o'clock in the morning until about 6 o'clock in the afternoon. Her remains were interred at the L. O. O. F. Cemetery Tuesday evening at 4 o'clock p.m. She leaves a husband and several children who have the sympathy of the entire community.

Dissolution Notice.

By mutual consent, the firm heretofore existing under the name of Ketchum & Montgomery, is this day dissolved. H. Ketchum succeeding to all accounts, notes, etc., and assuming all liabilities. H. M. Montgomery retiring.

H. KETCHUM.

Referring to the above, I beg to acknowledge our gratitude for the liberal trade we have enjoyed and pray a continuance of same, promising my careful, personal attention to all prescriptions, orders, etc., and the lowest prices that can be given for good fresh goods. I have just received a very large stock of drugs at Net Cash prices, and hope you will grant me a liberal share of your patronage.

Respectfully,

H. KETCHUM.

Mrs. George Campbell, who was living on the Ashton farm near the Warren crossing on the Colorado river was accidentally drowned last Saturday Sept. 10th. She had gone to the river to get a bucket of water, and it is supposed in her effort to dip the water, she slipped into the river which is about ten feet deep at that place. Her body was found Sunday evening about 90 yards below the place she fell in. The inquest was held soon after the body was found and a verdict of accidental drowning was the result.

News was received here last Wednesday that Mrs. John Barleson, daughter of H. E. Walker of this county, was dying.
